

Writing an informal e-mail

Hello lads!

How are y'all doing? I have been in Vienna for a week already and this place is awesome, you should definitely consider coming here on your next holidays.

The hotel I'm staying at is right at the city downtown so I can pretty much go to every interesting place by walking, so cool. I have made friends with some hotel guests and we usually go out every night for dinner. There are so many fancy restaurants and the food here is really tasty, a bit heavy as well but nothing a good morning walk around this beautiful city can solve ^^

I have visited many places already, such as the modern-art museum, the theater, the city hall, etc... but my favourite has definitely been the "Winter Palace", it is hard to describe it with words so that's why I'm sending you some pictures attached with the e-mail.

It is also an amazing place for learning german, the vast majority of the people here has a pretty neutral accent so you don't have to deal with heavy accents like in Germany, that's the main reason I chose to spend my holidays here but it has been one of the best decisions I have ever made.

And that's pretty much it from me, don't forget to write me back.

Take care,

Julian
